

Mrs. Patricia Cummins has been teaching Spanish at St. Ambrose Catholic School since the fall of 2002. She loves the warm, spiritual atmosphere at the school and the enthusiasm the students bring each day.

Sra. Cummins received a BA in Spanish and French as well as a MA in Spanish Language and Literature from Boston College. After studying in Spain and France, she went on to teach at Boston College.

Sra. Cummins and her husband, Brian have been married for 24 years and are members of St Mary of Sorrows Parish in Fairfax. They have five children, a recent college graduate, two in college and two currently in high school. Being an Army family, they have travelled and lived in many places, most notably, Germany, Korea and England. Exploring other cultures is a favorite activity.

In her spare time, Sra. Cummins volunteers for the USO, preparing meals for the homeless FACETS and Girl Scouts. She enjoys reading, sewing and watching the Red Sox.
